If your organization is actively supporting the Katrina relief effort and could use the CallingPost messaging service in that effort, please contact CallingPost at the following email address: katrina@callingpost.com

CallingPost Communications and its employees extend their sympathies and prayers to those affected by Hurricane Katrina and its aftermath. The local, state, and federal emergency personnel as well as all of the volunteers who are working day and night to help the people affected by the Katrina Disaster recover from this tragic event are to be commended.

In lieu of any contributions to the CallingPost Foundation for the Katrina Relief effort, please make all contributions directly to one of these organizations listed above by following the active links.
